3. Entry forms must be returned to the Sportsbook retail counter during its operating hours and within the promotional period.

Drawings, Winners & Prizes

1. Sunday, April 7, 2024, drawing for squares and numbers on the pool
 - a. All eligible entries will be placed in a drawing drum.
 - b. The first (100) one hundred entries drawn from the drum will be added into the squares and be eligible to win prizes.
 - c. In the event there are not (100) one hundred entries, the remaining squares will remain blank.

- d. Filling the squares: Entries pulled from the drum will then go into a square. We will start in the top left corner and continue across the line until the row is filled. Then we will start the next row on the far left until it is filled. We will follow this procedure until all entries have been pulled or we reach (100) one hundred entries maximum.
 - e. The team that is deemed the “home” team by the NCAA will be across the top of the pool. The team that is deemed the “away” team will be along the left side of the pool.
 - f. We will randomly draw the numbers 0-9. The first number will go in the top left spot, and we’ll work our way across the horizontal line until all ten numbers are placed. Then we will repeat that process on the vertical line by starting with the top spot and working our way down the page until all ten numbers are placed.
2. Prizes determined by the outcome of the first half score and final score of the NCAA Championship Men’s Basketball Game played on April 8, 2024
 - a. Halftime winner is the person whose name is listed in the square where the last number in each teams’ score intersects. That winner will receive $500 in Penn Cash. For example, the home team has a halftime score of 31 and the away team has a halftime score of 30. The winner is the person whose name occupies the square where the home team 1 and the away team 0 intersect.
 - b. Halftime opposite is the person whose name is listed in the square where the last number in each team’s score had the score been flipped intersects. That winner will receive $250 in Penn Cash. For example, the home team has a halftime score of 31 and the away team has a halftime score of 30. The winner is the person whose name occupies the square where the home team 0 and the away team 1 intersect.
 - c. Final score winner is the person whose name is listed in the square where the last number in each teams’ score intersects. That winner will receive $500 in Penn Cash. For example, the home team has a final score of 68 and the away team has a final score of 72. The winner is the person whose name occupies the square where the home team 8 and the away team 2 intersect.
 - d. Final score opposite is the person whose name is listed in the square where the last number in each team’s score had the score been flipped intersects. That winner will receive $250 in Penn Cash. For example, the home team has a final score of 68 and the away team has a final score of 72. The winner is the person whose name occupies the square where the home team 2 and the away team 8 intersect.
3. Winners will be contacted using the information on the entry form.
4. Prizes will be awarded to accounts on April 9, 2024, no later than 5PM.
5. Winners are responsible for all federal, state, and local taxes.
